8. Futurity winners will be included in the Championship Parade
9. Judge to designate outstanding showman/sportsman of show.
10. An invitation has been extended to Holstein breeders from New England, the Maritime provinces and Quebec to participate in the Show.
11. Fair cattle for the Windsor Fair shows will stay until Labor Day. Windsor offers attractive premiums and encourages Holstein Breeders to participate. Contact Curtis Prime, Supt.
12. Judge's reception follows show:
 - Food, spirits, and merriment
 - Presentation of Showman/Sportsman Award
 - Premier Breeder and Premier Exhibitor awards

*The judge's reception provides exhibitors a chance to visit with the Judge, breeders, and guests. Exhibitors are encouraged to contribute any food or beverage in an effort to make this a memorable event to all participating.
13. There will be a herdsmanship contest with premiums of $50 (1st), $25 (2nd) and $25 (3rd). To be considered, a minimum of six (6) head must be included in the exhibit. An exhibit is limited to a single ownership. If more than one owner are cooperating in presenting an exhibit, the person in charge must be designated when entries are checked. Entries will be judged based on:
 1. Care and presentation of cattle;
 2. Effectiveness of display in promoting cattle and/or dairy products; and,
 3. Attitude of personnel involved with the exhibit toward fairgoers, prospective customers, and fair management.
14. There will be a railbird judging contest on one milking class and one heifer class. This will include a small entry fee. Winners will be announced at the judge's reception and money prizes awarded in both Junior and Senior categories.

Reminder: E.S.E. entry deadline is August 15.
